

Thomas G. Tingle, AIA is President of GuernseyTingle, an architectural, interior design and planning firm founded in 1983. Tom leads many of the firm's Design/Build pursuits for federal, municipal, and private clients. He has been instrumental in moving GuernseyTingle from a traditional Design-Bid-Build architectural practice in the 1990's to having most of its projects delivered through Design/Build, CM at Risk, and other creative delivery methods today.

Tom serves on the Commonwealth's Region 5 GO Virginia Council and its Executive Committee. He also serves as Chairman/Chief Volunteer Officer for the YMCA of the Virginia Peninsulas, and as Vice Chair of the James City County EDA. Tom also serves on the Williamsburg Health Foundation Board of Trustees, Virginians for High Speed Rail Board of Directors, and Chesapeake Bank's Board of Directors.
